Club £6,989.61, Autumn/Brunel £3,107.30, Bluebell £1,381.01.  We are £31.62 down on the year to date (£74.96 down at the same time last year).  Interest rate has now gone up to 1.3%  Reference Brunel bookings I have £2,850 and 27 Bookings. The difference is Warwick cheque for £30 outstanding, and I have a booking from Bert and payment of £77. Not sure how they come to that figure!!  So I think the total will be 28 bookings and £2,880 when the £30 cheque is paid in.

EVENT CO-ORDINATOR'S REPORT
VD advised John Shackford has sold his MGTf and has bought a Mini Cooper but wants to remain a member as we are such a friendly Club. We assured him that he could come to events in that if he wished.. Portishead Lake Grounds - first Saturday in the month - Classic Car Meet. 8 cars went to MG's in the Park, all agreed excellent event. 16 people have signed up to the Life Skills visit July Club Night - 20 signed up for BBQ, bound to be more turn up. HV to do coleslaw and potato salad and relish, VD to sort rolls, butter, tomatoes 7 August - Sherbourne Castle, no club stands left, but could arrange to meet prior and arrive together 27 August - Wings and wheels at Henstridge Airfield Discussion held regarding club members claiming mileage for organising club runs, following discussion it was felt that the committee did not want to set a precedent, so no.	HV/VD
ANNUAL CLUB EVENT (BRUNEL)
See attached list of tasks Committee members received an e mail from Liz, BH had apparently approached her regarding catering for the evening meal at Brunel and had suggested a chicken coconut curry and rice main course with a vegetarian alternative and Arctic Roll with fresh fruit salad and cream. Following some lengthy discussion, it was agreed that this was not a suitable menu for many reasons, dislike of curry, allergens with coconut (also most of committee don't like coconut) It was suggested that GB would respond to Liz with the suggested menu of Beef Bourguignon, Jacket Potato and vegetable followed by fruit crumble and ice cream / cream. With a vegetarian option but not stir fry please.	GB
